

Friday 22nd January

Good morning everyone.

Happy Friday!

This is our last lot of work for this week. Thank you to all the children who have been completing tasks set and showing me your efforts on Seesaw.

It makes us feel really proud when we see what you have been doing and the progress you are making.

A huge big thank you to all the parents for supporting your children. We understand it is not an easy task but you are doing a fantastic job.

If you haven't uploaded any work yet you were sent a Seesaw code via email a couple of weeks ago. With that Seesaw code you can use the app or website to share what your child has been doing with us and we can comment.

Please contact us via email if there are any problems or difficulties.

There is no need to print out all the worksheets. You can write your answers on a piece of paper.

There are packs for all children available from the school office with an exercise book, pencil and some supplementary materials if they would be useful to you.

Here is today's work.

RE:

The Prodigal Son

Re-read the story from the PowerPoint on Monday.

Think about what the father gave his lost son when he returned and then (tricky bit!) what is the important message of the story?
