

Tuesday 23rd February 2021

LO: To gather adventurous vocabulary for a setting description.

Let's switch our literacy brains on!

Find all the adverbs dirt quietly running jumped yesterday house was bicycle London usually she hook red sky carelessly soon table entertainment we are dog painfully school witch digging sit now quickly my this fan last month gingerly

Fix the sentences

In the evenings, I like to spend time with my family.
We play board games and watch films together.

Today, I would like us to focus on interesting vocabulary for setting description.

What is a setting?

Where is the first chapter of Pip set?

The Villekulla Cottage

‘At the end of a little Swedish town lay an old, overgrown orchard. In the orchard was a cottage...’

‘Her father had bought the old cottage in the orchard many years ago. He wanted to live there with Pipi when he grew old...It stood there furnished and ready and waiting for her.’

‘And so they went through Villekulla Cottage’s tumble-down orchard gate and up the path between rows of mossy trees (trees lovely for climbing, they noticed) to the house and on to the porch. There stood the horse...’

Mysterious, spooky, shattered windows

Dusty, dirty, old and rusty, overgrown, neglected

Childish, colourful, decorated, spacious

Villekulla Cottage

Beautiful, huge, spacious porch

Creative, fun, funky colours, Mossy green, pink

Crazy, mossy trees, crooked roof

Let's think of some interesting words and phrases to describe the cottage.

Size (e.g. a town; a room):	Huge, gigantic, spacious, massive, vast orchard, enormous
Location (e.g. the kingdom of Deryuss):	Sweden, small town, cottage surrounded by an orchard
Inhabitants (What creatures and people are here?):	Pipi, monkey Mr Nelson, horse
Focus (What draws your eye in this place?)	Trees, colour, a horse, personality