

Thursday 21st January 2021

LO: To write effective sentences for our story.

Let's get our brains working!

Fix the sentence:

Early in the morning, Katie had two apples and drank a glass of orange juice.

Today, we are looking at:

1. Noticing/sights
2. Actions
3. Alliteration

Character Highs

Lucy

Today, we are looking at Plot point 5- a silhouette

Character Lows

admitting defeat
Giving up
Lost hope
Retreating/surrendering
Calling it a day
Abandoning all their hope

Whoosh
Splash
Crash
Gurgle
Swish
Squirt
Fizz
splosh

Outline
Shadow
A blur
Figure
Shape
Image
Profile
silhouette

Just as she was about to admit defeat...whoosh! She turned to see a silhouette poking above the crest of a wave.

At that very moment, she noticed the lookout tower. Her prayers had been answered.

Just as she was about to admit defeat...whoosh! She turned to see a silhouette poking above the crest of a wave.

At that very moment, she noticed the lookout tower. Her prayers had been answered.

hankering    hungering
Wanting    craving
Hoping
Yearning
Dreaming
Praying
Demanding
Longing
needing

Climbed
Bolted
Zoomed
Sprinted
Shot
Rushed
Ran
darting

Craving a better view, she dashed towards it, scrambled to the top and craned her neck for a clearer picture.

Just as she was about to admit defeat...whoosh! She turned to see a silhouette poking above the crest of a wave.

At that very moment, she noticed the lookout tower. Her prayers had been answered.

Craving a better view, she dashed towards it, scrambled to the top and craned her neck for a clearer picture.

Curious and captivated, mesmerised and mystified, she scrutinised the horizon.

tearful and transfixed
Amazed and amused
Happy and heroic
Excited and ecstatic
Amazed and ambitious

hopeful and hypnotised
motivated and mesmerised
happy and hopeful
fascinated and fixated