

The Witch of Axon

So you want to cross Dead Man's Bridge do you?
Then you are either very brave or very foolish.
Which are you I wonder?

Only a wise one can cross Black Cat Creek, so first I must give you a riddle.

Answer it, and you may cross the bridge. But if you get it wrong, I'll boil you up in my cauldron and add your bones to the bridge myself!

Are you ready? Then I'll begin.....

*I sit not on earth,
Not on chair or on floor.
I live with my friends,
In a house with no door.*

*And when I play out,
The owls hoot and bats fly.
Wolves howl on the hills,
And the babes start to cry.*

*So as I look down,
Always changing my face.
Just look for my name,
When you stare into space!*

Time's up! Now tell me, what is your answer?
