Skills Work – Verb + adverb

Running speedily,

Charging fiercely,

Walking slowly,

Glimmering brightly,

Gerda finds Kay - Music

Gerda's feelings -How was Gerda feeling when.....

- She defeated the Snow Queen's army.
- She walked through the large cold corridors of the palace.
- When she saw Kay in the hall.
- When Kay didn't recognise her.
- When she shook him.
- When she held him close and cried.
- When Kay returned to normal.

Activity – The Moment of Truth

Staring vaguely, Kay pushed the letters around Reasons mirror. Nervously, Gerda entered the palace. Winds blowing wildly around her. Filled with cold, he sat like one of the Palace ice statues. Surrounded by her angel army, she felt brave and encouraged. He did not move. Cautiously, Gerda made her way across the ice. Glancing bravely, at her reflection she saw the determination in her own eyes and knew she could beat the Snow Queen. Slowly, he turned to look at her. Eyes and heart empty. Grabbing him fiercely by the shoulders, Gerda shook Kay then pulled him close.

At last, she had found him. He was alive! Tears of joy flooded her face. A tear fell onto Kay's face and trickled into his eye, washing away the evil sorcerer's mirror. Gerda gasped. Another tear drop touched Kay's tongue. The warmth flooded his body, melting the ice in an instant. She had broken the spell, she had defeated the Snow Queen, she had her true friend back, now she understood her powers. Gerda and Kay's friendship would last for ETERNITY.
