

Roald Dahl

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

THE WORLD'S
No. 1
STORYTELLER

illustrated by Quentin Blake

Monday 16th November 2020

Home Learning

Skills Work - Conjunctions:

- Write a sentence starting with the subordinating conjunction. Keep the context about Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
- When
- If
- Because

E.g. When the children walked into the chocolate room they were amazed.

Chapter 16 – Oompa-Loompas

Today will read to you chapter 16 where Mr Wonka tells the children about how he discovered the Oompa Loompas.

Listen carefully as for your work today you will need to pretend to be Mr Wonka writing a letter to his dad to tell him about his discovery. I have started you off on the next slide.

Oompa Loompa

Please click on the audio file on our class page to listen to this chapter of the story.

Monday 16th November 2020

L.O - I can write a letter

Context - Discovering the Oompa Loompas

Dear Daddy,

Whilst on my amazing adventure and have discovered a new country called Loompaland. Here in Loompaland I have also found a new species - Oompa Loompas. They are exceptionally small and rather bizzar little characters and I intend to bring them back home with me.

Boxing up plan (notes) - Letter

Dear Daddy,

- Box 1 – Amazing adventure , discovered new species, bringing them home.
- Box 2 – Describe the Oompa Loompas what they look like, where they live, what they eat.
- Box 3 – Explain why you're bringing them home.
- Ending – See you soon, Willy Wonka

- Each box is a paragraph (Section) Remember to miss a line before starting the next paragraph.

- Include good adjectives and conjunctions

e.g. and, but, so, if, when, because, after etc