

Wednesday 10th February

Good morning everyone.

Thank you again for all your lovely work and for the magnificent effort you are making.

We know for various reasons working from home instead of being in school isn't always easy for you and your families but we do appreciate how hard you are trying to make it work.

If we can give you any help or advice please contact us via email

In the meantime please be assured you are doing a great job!

Here is today's work:

Maths:

This is another activity lesson to introduce some new learning; counting in fives.

Watch the video

Pages 9 and 10

Theme: Wonderful Weather

Extreme Weather (The Antarctic)

Read the information from the PowerPoint

Compare what it is like in England with what you have found out about Antarctica.
