

I know the story of the feeding of the five thousand and that Christians are called to follow this example of care today.

The hungry people were thankful that the boy shared his food.

I am thankful for _____

The boy shared his lunch.

I could share _____
